For all photographs

All photographers taking photographs on Chicago Theological Seminary property or of Chicago Theological Seminary events must obtain a signed release form from any student, faculty member, staff person, or member of the public who is visibly recognizable in the photograph. Crowd scenes where no single person is the dominant feature are exempt.

These rules govern photographs intended for use in any Chicago Theological Seminary publication of a marketing or a public relations nature, such as newsletters, brochures, view books, promotional items, or other such material. Releases also must be obtained for photographs used on the Web. These rules are not in effect when photographs are taken of news events, but photographs taken for news purposes require a release for reuse in marketing materials.

[] I hereby grant Chicago Theological Seminary permission to interview me and/or to use my likeness in photograph(s)/video in any and all of its publications and in any and all other media, whether now known or hereafter existing, controlled by Chicago Theological Seminary, in perpetuity, and for other use by Chicago Theological Seminary.

I will make no monetary or other claim against Chicago Theological Seminary for the use of the interview and/or the photograph(s)/video.

[] I do not grant Chicago Theological Seminary permission to interview me and/or to use my likeness in photograph(s)/video in any and all of its publications and in any and all other media, whether now known or hereafter existing, controlled by Chicago Theological Seminary, in perpetuity, and for other use by Chicago Theological Seminary.
